

I'm John Kitchens and I have lived in the Poudre Canyon since 2017. But I've been recreating in the canyon since the early 90s from when I as an undergraduate at CSU. Graduating in '96, I left a year later for graduate schools and other pursuits. I happily returned to Fort Collins in 2013 and since then I was able to buy one of the few remaining patches of raw land in the Lower Canyon. I built a small home and operate a little farm not far from the Greyrock Trailhead. I love living in the canyon, and can often be seen hiking or kayaking, or just enjoying a drink by the riverside at The Mish. I am currently senior instructor for the University Honors Program at Colorado State and am thrilled to be teaching at my Alma Mater. I am community and service-oriented, and I am running to represent the lower Poudre Canyon residents.
